Metropolitan Planning Organization

Five-Year Strategic Plan
September 30, 2017

Introduction and Context for the Strategic Plan

The time is right for the Des Moines Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) to develop its first five-year strategic plan. Central Iowa continues its dynamic growth and change. Cities and counties are seeking stronger partnerships to address the known and unknown opportunities and challenges facing the region. This strategic plan sets out the important role of the MPO and direction for the organization as it leverages its unique membership and position in the region.

The MPO recently received high praise from U.S. Department of Transportation officials for outstanding performance in meeting and exceeding federal requirements for the organization. These accolades were in recognition of the MPO's development of long-range transportation plans, administration of $13 million of federal funds, and a review of the additional convening and facilitation with transportation-related partners to encourage coordination and strategic solutions across the region.

Several significant elements of the MPO's recent activity in the region highlighted the importance of developing a strategic plan at this time. Receiving requested funding for and coordinating development of the Tomorrow Plan, adopted in 2013, is notable for its depth and breadth of its subject matter, as well as its comprehensive understanding of the interrelatedness of the many systems operated as stand-alone entities. New opportunities and expectations began to emerge for the MPO to engage more broadly with initiatives in the region.

Second, the MPO conducted a survey in early 2016 in an effort to begin tracking and improving its performance as measured by perceptions of member governments. That survey found overall favorable perceptions of the MPO's performance and value to the region. It also identified the need for clarity around the MPO's role and its support for services in the region. Finally, that survey also noted the need for the MPO to develop its first organizational strategic plan.

With this context and the recognition of uncertainty in public policy, political, and funding directions, the time was right for undertaking a comprehensive process of strategic planning. This document is a result of that process and reflects reviews of current and past activities and inputs; analysis of internal strengths and weaknesses as well as external opportunities and threats; political, economic, social, and technology factors; and stakeholder inputs from member and nonmember individuals and organizations through issue-focused small group sessions, individual discussions, and an electronic survey. The resulting documents and reports on these activities and inputs are included in the Appendix to the Strategic Plan.

The Steering Committee carefully considered the inputs and determined, through this strategic plan, goals and strategies to ensure a strong Des Moines Area Metropolitan Planning Organization that remains nimble and resilient to anticipate and effectively engage in promoting a dynamic regional economy and quality of life.

Implementation Plan

The Strategic Plan serves as a guide at all levels for the organization. It contains a hierarchy of the Vision and the Mission of the organization. Strategies are the broad areas of activity necessary to achieve the Mission. Each strategy needs a specific action plan to carry out the various components necessary to make progress toward the Strategy, Mission, and Vision.

Following is a template the MPO's leaders and staff can use or adapt to manage and track implementation of activities related to each strategy.

TEMPLATE FOR IMPLEMENTATION PHASE

Once the Strategic Plan is finalized, the MPO will develop an implementation or action plan focusing on each strategy. The implementation activities may be adjusted or updated from time to time and should be revisited at least annually to ensure progress is being made. The action/implementation phase is typically performed by staff with participation by MPO members and leaders as appropriate.

An Implementation Plan should be clearly written and meet the needs of the organization. An example might look something like the following.

Goal 2. Develop and maintain mutually-beneficial working relationships outside the MPO.

Strategy 2.1 Actively participate in collaborative regional planning or project initiatives where MPO can gain or bring value.
